

PRACTICE ALERT

New ADR Professional and Ethical Requirements

Alternative Dispute resolution processes are firmly established under federal and state laws. Competent legal representation therefore requires attorneys to be familiar with those laws and ADR issues, and to advise clients as to ADR alternatives. See Rules 1.1, 1.2(a) and 1.4(b).

Rule 1:40-1 (effective September 5, 2000) provides that State complementary dispute resolution programs are an integral part of the judicial process, and states specifically that “attorneys have a responsibility to become familiar with available CDR programs and inform their clients of them.”
